

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is also a gross misuse of public airwaves.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. This situation also demonstrates a clear picture of why the FCC exists in the first place. The FCC has a compelling responsibility to intervene in this matter.

Please do your duty and impose consequences on Sinclair should they choose to air a one-sided political "hit" piece during this important election season. Make sure America never becomes a land of propaganda.
